

TWIGS November & December Report - AGM with a Difference & Party Time

We decided to give our AGM a 'twist' this year - it was combined with a competition designed to test our taste bud skills to the limit. Suzanne gave us the challenge of guessing the country of origin of a selection of fine wine and cheeses! This proved to be more difficult than anticipated with many of us scoring zero! There was a clear winner however - Rebekah scored 6 out of a possible 12 and claimed the victor's prize of a 'New Look' voucher! Oh yes, and we also voted in our new committee: Rebekah Weaver - President, Christine Weller - Secretary, Sue Mazzey - Treasurer, George Casson, Suzanne Saunders, Vicky Lodder and Kathy Justice. Many thanks to Christine for steering TWIGS during the past two years and best of luck to Rebekah for taking over the prestigious title of 'President'.

Our Christmas Party was a great success - thank you Vicky for hosting such a fantastic evening. Rebekah ensured that our itinerary for next year was in order and it was decided that our February event would now be a trip to see the show 'Chicago' at the Mayflower in Southampton with our anniversary meal rescheduled for March. We certainly have fun things on our agenda for 2010!
