

TWIGS April Report - Grayshott Pottery Tour & DIY Evening

Our evening at Grayshott Pottery was certainly one to remember! We were treated to an amazing guided tour 'behind the scenes'. This included a detailed explanation as to the processes involved in the production of the items at Grayshott Pottery and their commercial strategy along with an insight into the current position of the pottery industry in the UK.

We were then treated to our DIY extravaganza! On a table before us were set plates and mugs just waiting to be painted with the special wax prior to being fired. We created our very own designs which were such fun to produce. There was to be even greater hilarity - we had the opportunity to 'throw' our own pots!

Yes, some of them may be destined for a 'seconds' department label but never mind it was such a marvellous experience which many of us would dearly like to repeat. Many thanks to Chris for his expertise and patience and to Alison for organising this fabulous evening.
