

TWIGS March Report – ‘Protection for Prostitutes’ by Jean Johnson

Jean has thoroughly researched her subject and her findings have been highlighted in both television documentaries and on radio shows as well as in national newspapers and magazines. Jean presented an informative and at times moving account of the dangers and hardships faced by those people actively engaged in this industry and also how other countries have come to terms with and sought to remedy the problems caused by prostitution. Thank you Jean for taking time out of your busy schedule to come to our TWIGS evening.
